VOLUME LI — UKIAH CITY, MENDOCINO COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY, JULY 4, 1919 — NUMBER 39

Today with glad acclaim and outstretched hand,
We greet our service men, that gallant band
Who dauntlessly to death, if that should be,
Went forth, that we might live in liberty;
Who flung themselves between us and the Huns,
A stalwart bulwark. Hail, ye! Freedom's sons,
Our champions on a score of fields ye stood;
To ye unmeasured runs our gratitude.

Ye countered might with might and backward hurled
The Prussian menace from a prostrate world.
On Italy's plains, in Flanders' trenches drear,
America 'twas, first taught the Hun to fear;
St. Mihiel, Chateau Thierry and Argonne,
Their glory will be ours and ours alone;
While on the sea our navy's watch and ward
Struck terror to the U-boats' brutal horde.

Ye, too, we honor, ready, eager all,
To answer to your loved country's call,
Yet whose the lesser part and harder far
To stay in camp and speed the rest to war.
Ye with your brothers from the field and sea,
An equal meed of gratitude to ye!
Our service men, we hail ye as ye come,
Honor to all, to all a welcome home.

TWO INJURED WHEN CAR LEAPS GRADE

An eight cylinder Caddillac car, bound for Ukiah and carrying three unknown men went over the grade late last Tuesday evening at the Montgomery Redwoods turnoff about one and one half mile the other side of Orr's Springs. The driver of the car suffered a broken collar bone, and another occupant was badly bruised internally and had several ribs broken. The third member of the trio escaped injury. The car turned over twice but was only slightly damaged. The uninjured member of the party remained in the car over night and made no attempt to secure medical aid until Wednesday morning, though the accident occurred only a short distance from Orr's. It would seem from this fact that the party did not wish undue publicity. That the name plate of the car had been removed also adds to the mystery that surrounds the identity of the party. The car is registered California 3038, under the name of J. J. Henderson of 121 Second Street, San Francisco.

COUNTY RANKS HIGH IN ROAD BOND VOTE

Although the returns from the highway bonds election which was held throughout the state last Tuesday are not yet complete enough to be definitely authentic, Keith C. Eversole, County chairman of the State Good Roads Campaign Committee announces that Mendocino county will rank among the first counties of the state in the proportion of the number of votes cast for the bonds to those cast against them. They ote was light throughout the state but present indications are that the bond issue will be carried by a vote of practically seven to one.

THREE BOYS ARE GIVEN PROBATION

Wood, Kjer and Larson, the three boys who were arrested here several weeks ago for stealing an automobile at Willits, appeared before Judge White for sentence last Saturday morning. The judge, after soundly lecturing the trio placed Wood and Kjer on probation for five years and also imposed the requirement that they pay for the goods they stole in Seattle and for the damage to the car they wrecked, the total amounting to $1000. This sum is to be paid in two years. Larson was placed on probation and put in charge of his relatives.

NEW ROADS TO BE CONSTRUCTED SOON

The forty million dollar bond issue which was passed at the recent election provides for the construction of two news roads into Mendocino county. One which is called the McDonald-to-the-Sea highway will pierce the coast region and provide a thoroughfare connecting with the main highway near Cloverdale. The other road is the much talked of Tahoe-to-Ukiah highway. In connection with the latter road the Sutter Buttes Tahoe-to-Ukiah Association has taken immediate action with the effect that this highway will be one of the first to be constructed. Work will be commenced on both ends of the proposed highway with a result that in the near future a construction camp will be located at Ukiah.

CONVICTED MEN GIVEN PROBATION BY JUDGE

Pietala and Kaukaana, the two Finns who were arrested at Ft. Bragg and later convicted on a charge of robbery, came up for sentence in the Superior Court last Saturday. They were placed on probation for two years.

TWO MEN JAILED ON STATUTORY OFFENSE

Sheriff Byrnes returned from Fort Bragg Wednesday evening bringing with him Raymond White, an Indian, and Millie Carlson, both of whom are lodged in the county jail charged with committing a statutory offense against a fifteen year old girl of Fort Bragg on last Monday evening. The preliminaries were held in Fort Bragg and the men were held to answer with bonds fixed at $2,000 each. The case will not come to trial until after the termination of the court vacation which will last until some time in August.

The alleged crime occurred on the Noyo beach. The girl and a boy friend were watching the fishing fleet come in, when White and Carlson appeared and ran the boy away with intimidation, after which they attacked the girl.

FAIRBANKS GETS CONTRACT HOPLAND-LAKEPORT ROAD

WILLITS, July 1.—The contract for building the Lakeport branch of the State Highway has been awarded to A. J. Fairbanks of Willits and he will put on a large force of men and teams within a few weeks. This branch from Hopland to Lakeport is 18 miles in length and the estimated cost was $264,000, but we have been informed that the contract price is considerably more than the estimate.

George Kohler of Alameda was an in-coming passenger on Tuesday's train. Ukiah still seems like home to him in spite of several month's absence.

Mrs. R. M. Barker of this city has gone to Oakland to spend the next few months with her daughter, Mrs. C. K. Edwards.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN MONTHLY SESSION

The regular meeting of the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce was held last Tuesday evening. The secretary was authorized to communicate to President Wilson the desire of the chamber to have the Proclamation of Demobilization made at the earliest possible moment in order that this year's grape crop may be taken care of. This action was taken at the request of the California Grape Protective Association.

In order to advertise Ukiah's Municipal Camp grounds it was voted that huge signs should be constructed and located at each end of town on State street, and C. A. Bernhard volunteered to furnish the material and construction of such free of charge. The movement of the Forestry department to appropriate funds for the protection of the forests is each state was also endorsed.

EVENING MAIL COLLECTION INAUGURATED WEDNESDAY

Postmaster W. B. Hagans received a communication last Wednesday from the Postmaster Generals office authorizing him to initiate an evening collection of mail in the business disrict of this city. Immediate action was taken and the evening collection commenced Wednesday evening, the time for the collection being 8 o'clock and a few minutes thereafter according to the location of the various mail boxes.

Mrs. Jack Smith and daughter, Margery, departed yesterday for North Dakota for a visit with relatives.

Luther Redemeyer came down from his ranch at Laytonville on business the first of the week.

ERNEST RAWLES AND BRIDE TO LIVE IN RICHMOND

BOONVILLE, June 30.—Miss Eloise Wallach, a popular teacher of this county, and Ernest Rawles were married at Santa Rosa June 26. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Adams at the Christian church parsonage.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wallach and daughter, Ermine, and Vernon Rawles.

The newly-weds left immediately after the ceremony for San Francisco and other bay points for a brief wedding trip, after which they will make their home at Richmond, where the groom has accepted a good position with the Standard Oil Co.

UNION SCHOOL DEFEATED IN WILLITS ELECTION

WILLITS, July 1.—Yesterday we had a special school election for the purpose of voting on the consolidation of the Little Lake, Sawyers and Whitcomb districts with Willits. There was a very light vote cast in Willits, only 42 votes, and these stood 23 yes and 19 no. The project was defeated in all three of the country districts.

DEPUTY CLERK CARPENTER RESIGNS POSITION

M. A. Carpenter, who has been a deputy county clerk under Clerk Hale Prather for the past six years, resigned his position the latter part of last week and will enter other pursuits. Always courteous and obliging to the public, Mr. Carpenter made a host of friends while in the clerk's office, who will miss him greatly.

John McGimsey had the misfortune to break a rib the first of the week when he tripped on a rug at his home and fell against the corner of a table.

BROWNIES WILL MEET THREE OUTSIDE TEAMS

By the time the three day celebration is over the Ukiah baseball team surely ought to be famous or infamous, for the locals will cross bats with other crack nines five times during the three days of the festivities. The schedule was rather upset by the fact that the Santa Rosa team had to call off its arrangements to play here owing to an accident that made it impossible for three of its members to participate in the games. At the present time the locals are endeavoring to arrange a two-game series with Napa, Healdsburg and Albion. The first game will be played with Albion on the afternoon of the Fourth. Two games will be played Saturday and there will also be two games on Sunday. The schedule for Saturday and Sunday has not yet been definitely arranged.

Considering the brand of baseball the locals have been displaying during the last two games the dopesteers seem to believe that Ukiah will come out of the series with at least four more victories salted away.

All that we can say now is that some team is going to win and that there ought to be some fireworks during the celebration.

FIRST FOREST FIRE FOR SEASON REPORTED

WILLITS, July 1.—The first forest fire of the season broke out last Friday on the Outlet, and is supposed to have been started by a hunter. This year the country is covered with long dry rass and a fire gets started very easily. The fire mentioned is still burning and is now under control. It has destroyed considerable tanbark and cordwood on Mrs. L. M. Grove's ranch, and Saturday night only very hard work saved the house and barn on the Mason ranch.

CAMPAIGM ON THRIFT STAMPS IS ORGANIZED

A meeting was called by Pat Connolly Monday night, June 23, at the city hall for the purpose of organizing the campaign in this communtiy for the sale of thrift stamps and war savings certificates. Although the war is over the bills are not paid and the government has asked that the sale of thrift stamps and war saving certificates be continued. Mr. Connolly has been appointed chairman of the drive.

Mrs. W. D. L. Held was elected chairman of the meeting Monday and outlined the proposed program, subsequently calling on those present for their ideas. Particular stress will be laid on the co-operation of the schools, and the teachers present contributed some very helpful ideas. Principal Brazier of the high school, proposed competition on saving among the high schools of the county. The idea set forth is for the students to keep an account of their earnings and expenditures, and then ascertain the proportion of the savings to the total amounts earned. At his suggestion also the board of education will be called upon to devise other plans for stimulating interest among the schools.

President Foster of the Ukiah Society, intimated that the merchants will be more than willing to aid in the movement by keeping supplies of the stamps on hand and boosting the sale in every manner possible.

Miss Dyer contributed some very useful suggestions, outlining a plan which she had put into operation and which had worked very successfully.

Rather than organize a new body to boost the drive, it was decided to utilize the organizations already existing in Ukiah, and among these are the woman's clubs, the lodges, the churches, etc.

The campaign will be taken up with energy after the vacation season.

Social and Club Activities

One cannot but note with interest the various states of mind of the public over the inconvenience of the telephone situation. While one complains bitterly of the inability to hold telephone conversations with relatives and friends another protests that the telephone was a nuisance anyway—always calling from duty to unimportant discussions of trival things but perhaps the most interesting discussion was that of the fear that the ringing of the bell frequently instills. One woman maintains that she answers a telephone summons with a horrid sinking of spirit fully expecting an announcement of illness or death, accident or catastrophy, never realizing the convenience of the system that summons aid hours before human mechanism could be put into action. There is no more significent indictment of the fear that is a remnant of primitive superstitution than to impute evil motives to the electricity that enables us to know immediately, the needs of humanity.

ANOTHER PICNIC PARTY AT SWIMMING POOL

At the Ford swimming pool on Thursday afternoon the members and friends of the Christian Church Sabbath School had a happy time swimming and playing games. The entire day was a gay one with both luncheon and supper served in the picturesque spot. Of course there was a generous supply of ices and cakes. KINGSLEY CHAPTER, O. E S, GREETS STATE OFFICER

Kingsley Chapter members were out in large numbers Tuesday evening to greet Mary Elizabeth Marshall, Worthy Grand Matron of the Order of Eastern Star, of the State of California. In anticipation of her coming competent committees had transformed the hall into a bower of blossoms and greenery with fish netting for a background. The ritualistic work of the order was put on to the satisfaction of the Grand Matron, who spoke warm words of commendation and who won all hearts by her graciousness. Near midnight a light collation was served at tables prettily adorned in white and yellow. Shasta daisies were arranged in large Japanese baskets of brown wicker, the handles of which were tied with fluffy bows of yellow tulle. Yellow shaded candle light made the setting very effective.

She writes that she made a number of pencil sketches from the rear of the train while crossing the Rockies. At present they are in Buffalo from which city they will visit Niagara before proceeding to Maine where the month of July will be spent.

Dinner was served at 8 p. m. In the center of the table was a huge basket of red carnations and ferns. The color scheme was further emphasized in the candle light and place cards which were of red. The charmingly gowned young women and music and dancing were some of the features that contributed to make the affair a success. Of course there was a birthday cake with twenty-two glittering candles and there were many birthday toasts to the fair guest of honor. Those who made up the happy party included Mesdames Ruth Mankins, Merle Banker, Ethel Van Dyke, the Misses Melissa Ball, Leila Gibson, Vivian Wilson, Neva Duncan, Nina Hilbrook, Lorene Holliday and Messrs. GRADUATES ARE GUESTS IN GIBSON HOME

Commencement with its attendant festivities occupied much of the social interest of last week particularly among the younger set and the sweet girl graduates required no label to indicate that they had reached another goal of their heart's desires. Following the commencement exercises at the Victory Theatre on Thursday evening Mrs. E. B. Gibson was hostess to the class at an informal dansant in the Gibson studio of music in Oak street. The pretty room was artistically decorated and the kindly hospitality of Mrs. Gibson made a fitting ending to an interesting evening.

WEDDING BREAKFAST FOLLOWS CHURCH CEREMONY

At a simple wedding that took place Monday morning at 9 a. m. in St. Mary's Holy Catholic church Miss Georgiana Irene Powers became the bride of John Joseph Blach of San Francisco. Both have been members of the staff of Mary's Help Hospital in San Francisco, Miss Powers as a nurse and Mr. Blach as an X-ray operator and it was there that the pretty fomance had its beginning. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Reverend Father Michael and a choir of boys' voices rendered appropriate music. The church was beautifully decorated in white oleanders and sweet peas. The wedding party was led by tiny golden-haired Margery Smith, who was fairy like in her dainty white garb. She carried a white basket of pink sweet peas which she strewed in the path of the bride who was gowned in white crepe de chine and lace. The bridal veil was held in place by hands of satin ribbon and fell to the hem of the dress. The bouquet was of white sweet peas and maiden-hair ferns arranged in a shower effect. Miss Ellen Powers was her sister's only attendant. She wore a stylish gown of pink satin with an overdress of white lace and carried pink brides-maid roses and ferns. The wedding ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Powers in Oak Park. The entire house was beautified by flowers arranged most artistically. In the center of the table was a huge basket of sweet peas in rose shades and five-fingered ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Blach left immediately for an automobile tour of Lake County and will return to Ukiah today to spend the week-end prior to going to San Francisco where they will reside. The traveling gown was a modish tailored suit of blue with hat to match. Miss Blanche Lowe caught the bride's bouquet as the bridal couple fled to their car amid a shower of rice. Those present at the nuptials were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacKensie, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. Wilkinson, the Misses Penelope Johnson, Katherine Gobbi, Blanche Lowe, and Bertha Boye. The wedding gifts were of crystal and silver and were very handsome and indicated the high esteem in which the young couple are held. Mrs. Blach is an exceedingly pretty young woman with a sunny disposition and Mr. Blach is indeed lucky to have won an estimable girl.

This week may truly be designated as "home-coming week" in Ukiah since almost every roof shelters some friend or relative home from the "big centers to spend the brief holiday with home folk. Most of the entertaining of the week will be in honor of these guests. Homes have been decorated in the national colors and there is an air of festivity abroad in the town. Among the many who are home are Dr. and Mrs. Atkins of San Francisco who are guests in the E. S. Ames home, Mr. and Mrs. Forbes who are guests of Mrs. Forbes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. CLUB WOMEN SHOW SPLENDID SPIRIT

Too much cannot be said in praise of the representation of the three women's clubs of Ukiah for their unselfish labor in behalf of the Victory Celebration. The ladies have been working tirelessly for more than a week and it is said by those who know that Ukiah will never see handsomer or more artistic floats than those to be exhibited today by the municipality. The Goddess of Liberty float in charge of Mrs. Edward Eversole and a corps of eight assistants and the California Float in charge of Mrs. J. L. Brown and a like number of workers are both works of art that would reflect credit on professional decorators.

HAVE RETURNED FROM DELIGHTFUL MOTOR TOUR

UKIAH SHINES AT LOWELL HIGH SCHOOL

Last Thursday, June 26th, was Ukiah Day at Lowell High School, San Francisco, as that was graduation day for the class of "Nineteen", which was composed of four former Ukiah pupils, all of whom had won special honors in a class of 130 pupils, the pupils being George Corley, Henry Sanford, Lucine Edwards and Constance Gray. To add to the occasion and incidentally boost Ukiah along, John L. McNab was chosen to deliver the oration. McNab was at his best and delivered a splendid and soul-inspiring address, giving the Ukiah graduates a kindly mention which was appreciated by the whole school. There were many Ukiah people at the auditorium to witness the exercises. The former Ukiahites to win honors and special mentio were as follows:

George Corley, president of the student body, and known for his work in art. He has recently won a scholarship, by competitive examination, in art in the Hopkins Art School, and will continue his studies in art in that famous school next year. He gives promise of a great future in that line of work.

Henry Sanford, president of the senior class, who was master of ceremonies and gave the salutatory address. He is associate editor of "The Lowell" and won the honors as prosecuting attorney in the moot court. He also won a medal in the athletic contests. He will attend the University of California next fall.

Lucine Edwards, who was class president in low senior, and who gave the valedictory address. He won distinction for writing two of the class plays that were presented during the term. He gained a medal in athletics. He will also attend the University of California next term.

Miss Constance Gray, the accomplished daughter of Mrs. Olive Gray, who was a former Mendocino county teacher but now a teacher in the San Francisco school department, won distinction in general work and completed the four year course in three years. She will attend the San Francisco normal school and prepare herself for teaching.

Miss Elizabeth Price was present and the proudest of all Ukiahites, for each of the four pupils to graduate with such high honors started to school to her in the primary department in the Ukiah grammar school some twelve years ago. It was a great day for Ukiah and was much appreciated by pupils and teachers. The exercises were said to be the best ever held by Lowell.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licensese were issued the past week to the following couples: John W. Nelson and Lillie O'Donnel of Mendocino; Frank Pullen and Emma Russe, of Willits; Ernest H. Dunsing and Helen Elizabeth Furlong of Ukiah; Chas. Paolo and Lyddie Sparks of Eureka.

Matt Dellamonica, a former resident of the Covelo section, but now of Vallejo, was a Ukiah visitor on

SOCIETY 25 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Leirly entertained a large party of friends on the Fourth of July at their magnificent country resort at the southern base of Mt. San Hedrin. The guest list included many Ukiah and Potter Valley friends. To quote a literary guest present the barbeque was held "under skies that are bluer than sapphire, and a noon sun that's hotter than sin." This same literary person gave the following toast "God grant that as firm as San Hedrin, our country forever may stand!"

SOCIETY 15 YEARS AGO

A brilliant social success of the week was the musicale given by the interstate class of Miss Louella Williams in honor of the graduation of Mrs. Nellie Gibson. Mrs. Gibson surpassed herself in the rendition of her selections and that is saying a great deal.

DISTINCTION IS AGAIN BROUGHT TO UKIAH CITY

A banquet was held at the Palace Hotel in honor of State President E. J. Sanford Friday evening, June 27, by the local lodge of Eagles.

Mr. Sanford was elected State President of the Eagles and the great honor was given to him after a long fight with San Jose and Los Angeles. Too much credit cannot be given to Mr. Sanford for bringing such an honor to a small city like Ukiah, in fact, it was freely stated at the convention that Ukiah would not land the highest office within the gift of the State Aerie. But after the count of the votes it was found that Mr. Sanford had won all votes except ten.

Today Ukiah is within the eyes of all Eagles of the State numbering over 50,000 progressive men, and the reason of our city being thus brought into prominence was through unity of purpose on the part of President Sanford and the various delegates from the Ukiah Aerie of Eagles.

One incident which shows the value of the publicity thus attained, happened at an Eagles' meeting at San Francisco where over 1500 members were present. When Mr. Sanford walked on the platform with Mayor Rolph of San Francisco, the members rose in mass and, cheering, yelled, "Sanford, Sanford, Mendo, Mendo, Cino, Cino, Ukiah, UKIAH."

The above incident happened in several places where Mr. Sanford stopped.

The banquet was well attended and good talks were made by Lilburn Gibson, J. J. Thomas, Ed. Eversole and Mr. Sanford. Curtis A. Miller acted as toast master. Music was furnished by Valentine Miller.

Ukiah seems to be on the map fraternally as well as politically and we are all glad to see our own towns people honored. In 1898, Dr. E. G. Case was High Chief Ranger of the Ancient Order of Foresters and J. B. Sanford was High Chief Ranger of the same order from 1902 to 1906. Mrs. A. O. Carpenter was president of the Rebecca Assembly at one time and Mrs. Fannie McCowen was Grand Matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, and now Ukiah has again been honored by the election of E. J. Sanford to the presidency of the State Aerie of Eagles.

A GOOD WOMAN GONE!

Mrs. Nancy A. Bellah died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Steele, Willits, Cal., on Saturday, June 14th, at the advanced age of 86 years. She had been failing gradually for some months, and the end came very sweetly and peacefully, truly "A Falling Asleep in Jesus."

Nancy Underwood was born in Madison Co., Missouri, on Sept. 8, 1833, and in her early teens was married to Samuel Bellah. Coming to California about 1857 they settled in Sonoma county, afterwards going to the Salinas Valley, Monterey Co., where she had resided almost continuously until the last few years, when the approaching infirmities of old age compelled her to give up her home, since which time she has made her home with her children. Seventeen children were born to this union, fourteen of whom survive her; among them are Mrs. G. A. Martin of this place and Mrs. F. W. Steele of Willits. Her husband preceded her to the Great Beyond in 1882. When very young she united with the Christian Church, later in life identifying herself with the Baptist church, and has ever since remained a faithful, consistent Christian, every ready to lend a helping hand to those in need, living fully, freely and bravely, putting into that life much of gentle motherhood, and of sweet, simple womanliness. A life abounding, sometimes in pain, often in care, but a great, noble life because the communities in which she lived are greatly bettered by her having lived therein. And to her children the inspiration of her life and teachings will ever remain and with them she has left Love's Talisman to guide them to her home. And "Her children rise up and call her blessed!"

The remains were taken to her old home at Soledad, Monterey county, where the funeral was held from the residence of her grand-daughter. It was attended by ten of her children, numerous grand and great-grandchildren, and a large number of old-time friends. The flower-covered casket was borne to its resting place by her sons-in-law, among whom were G. A. Martin of this place, F. W. Steele of Willits. Among many of her friends, she had loved of yore, and beneath a mound of flowers, she was laid to rest. Loved and honored in life, "Grandma" Bellah, as she was lovingly known, will be sincerely mourned in death. Much sympathy is extended her daughter here in her bereavement.

I. M. BRAZIER ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

A telegram from Sacramento early Wednesday afternoon brought the glad tidings that Principal I. M. Brazier of the local high school had successfully completed the examinations for bar entry and was a full-fledged attorney. Mr. Brazier has been studying law in the office of Attorney W. D. L. Held and but few of his friends knew that he was ready to take the examinations until the message announcing his success was made known to them. It is probable that Attorney Brazier will spend the summer prior to the opening of high school in the office of Attorney Held. Many local friends will hasten to extend congratulations and best wishes for a successful career.

ANDERSON VALLEY

(Delayed.)

ANDERSON VALLEY, June 25—Mrs. Dell Rawles and daughter, Miss Thelma, left Sunday for an extended visit in Nevada.

The Misses Lyle Rawles, Iva Fitch, Katherine Jewett and Messrs. Roscoe Lawson and Edward Jewett left on Sunday for Ukiah and are taking the teachers' examination at that place. All success is wished these deserving young people as they have surely been doing some hard studying and good work preparatory to taking the ex.

Tom Witherell went back to Moulton's camp on Sunday after being laid up a few days with a badly cut foot.

Miss Avis Cureton and Miss Wilda Stanley, both teachers in the Fort Bragg school, passed through this valley Monday on their way to San Francisco.

Leo Batt and family of Healdsburg were visiting at the home of Mrs. Batt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Crispin of Mountain View this week.

Mr. Frye, one of the popular high school teachers and a member of the Board of Education, came over from Ukiah on Saturday evening and returned on Sunday to help in the finishing up of the examination papers.

School has closed in all the districts with the exception of the Christine or Counts district. Miss Irene Clay has been employed as teacher for next term in the Boonville district. Miss Clay intends to leave on Saturday morning for Arcata where she will enter the State Normal at that place, taking up the course of study of the summer session.

The dance given at Navarro on Saturday night was one of the best given for many months. A large crowd came over from Comptche and the valley was well represented from Boonville to Navarro. A good substantial lunch with lots of genuine good coffee was served in the hall at midnight by Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Tinnell, while ice cream was also sold during the evening. The music was furnished by Weiss' orchestra of Fort Bragg which was recommendation enough to draw a good crowd. The floor managers, Mr. Dakin and Jimmy Collins saw that everybody had a good time. It is to be said, if Anderson Valley would furnish such floor managers at all their dances that there would be better satisfaction at a great many of them. It is to be hoped that the people of Navarro will give another such affair in the near future.

It is being talked now of a picnic and dance, everything free, to be given in Boonville on July 4th, by the mothers of our returned soldiers. It sure is to be lamented that this Fourth of July has been allowed to go by unnoticed for did we not promise ourselves a big time as soon as we got our boys all home.

But we promise to have something for them this Fourth and we know, with the help of Lanny Witherell, as manager of the ball, and the mothers of the soldiers behind the supper arrangements, that we can have some kind of a time.

Dr. L. B. Lawson, optometry specialist, will be at the Palace Hotel, Ukiah, Saturday, July 5. For residence calls leave word at hotel or notify by postal. LAWSON-RINNER OPTICAL CO., 535 Fourth St., Santa Rosa, Cal. 39-1tc

FINAL TRANSFER IN IRMULCO PURCHASE

WILLITS, June 24.—Last week the deal between the Northwestern Redwood Company and the Irvine & Muir Lumber Company was finally consummated. Prior to that time the deal was largely verbal agreements but now all of the papers have been signed and the money has changed hands. The Northwestern Redwood Company is now the owner of the mill, timber and equipment at Irmulco.

Today the Northwestern people expect the first carload of logs from Irmulco and after this the crew will probably make daily trips. These logs in addition to those they receive from Ten Mile will enable them to run two shifts at Northwestern and this means more men and more money spent in Willits.

KEROSENE CONVENIENT AND ECONOMICAL FEUL

The muss and dirt of a coal or wood cook-stove add to the burden of the housewife. Coal dust seems to get everywhere and it seems continual work to keep a kitchen clean when coal is used in the stove.

All this trouble is done away with when kerosene is used as a fuel. It is clean and convenient and makes far less work for the housewife. In addition to this, it is more economical than either coal or wood.

A good kerosene like the Standard Oil Company's Pearl Oil makes a distinct saving, not only in the household budget but also in the time and energy of the housewife. Pearl Oil gives excellent results as far as good cooking is concerned and when it is used the kitchen never becomes overheated. A good cookstove with Pearl Oil will bake, broil, roast and toast economically.

Having been refined, and re-refined by a special process, the impurities are removed from Pearl Oil so that it burns up clean and produces no odor.

U. S. LOSES TITLE IN McMURTRY OIL SUIT

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—An action instituted by the government to have set aside mineral locations on 160 acres of rich oil bearing land in Kern county, filed by L. B. McMurtry for several individual oil operators, and which the government alleged were secured illegally and by fraud by McMurtry, was decided by United States District Judge Robert S. Bean of Portland, Ore., in an opinion handed down here today. McMurtry's location rights were sustained.

From the evidence adduced at the trial of the action several weeks ago, McMurtry located 160 acres of oil land in Kern County in 1909. He then secured eight individuals and companies who filed mineral claims on the property.

The locators then let a contract to develop the land to J. M. McLeod, who transfered it to his attorney. The attorney re-transferred it to McMurtry and the latter, the government alleged, sold certain portions of it for large sums. The government contended that McMurtry thus secured the land and proceeds from its sale by fraud.

Judge Bean held, however, that "in making the location and subsequent contracts in relation thereto, the fair concensus of opinion from the evidence in my judgment is that McMurtry was acting for and in behalf of his principals with no intention of that time of fraudulently acquiring the land or proceeds therefrom for himself."

There has been no sale, and Streeter wants his land back, but claims that the defendant refuses to restore it.

THE BORAH-JOHNSON-KNOX DILEMMA

Much that goes on at Washington which sounds well, even in the Senate Chamber, is the purest buncombe. The real trouble with a number of our Senators in their relation to the League of Nations is that they would like to be President; but they are confronted with this situation: President Wilson among hte Democrats, and Taft among the Republicans have been much more actively identified at this time with the scheme for a League of Nations than anybody else. Both before we entered the war and afterwards, while the world was being shocked by its horrors, nearly, if not quite all the Senators, like everybody else were heartily in favor of a League of Nations and with one voice all said that as soon as this war was over, the world must unite in such a league to avoid future wars. This sentiment seemed to be universal until after President Wilson went to Paris. As the work of the Paris Council progressed, and the League begun to take shape, these Senators with political aspirations doubtless reasoned that if everybody approved and supported the League, it would create such a tidal ware in favor of those most active in its formation that they would overshadow everybody else. This would mean President Wilson to lead the Democrats in the next Presidential campaign, if he would consent to run for a third term, and Ex-President Taft to lead the Republicans; under such conditions the Borah-Johnson-Knox crowd would be placed in an awkward dilemma and would have but little chance, so they at once set about with a noisy opposition to check the League movement and declaimed much about patriotism and Americanism and quoted Washington and others about entangling alliances, thinking perhaps that them asses of the people would submerge their own ideas and, like sheep, follow blindly when the august Senators spoke; but we think that the course they have taken is a serious if not fatal mistake so far as even their present political fortunes are concerned. The American people are not fools and are no longer uniformed as to what is going on; moreover, they do some thinking for themselves and cannot be deceived by such puerile subterfuges as these Senators are resorting to. They cannot understand why a world movement for peace and the reduction of armies and navies with their excessive burdens of taxation, which was heralded a short time since by everybody as the greatest blessing that could come to mankind, should in a few months become such a monstrous thing as these Senators now claim. They ask why such a sudden change of front on so vital a question, and they have begun to understand that the reason that lies back of the senatorial opposition is not the fear of the results of the League to the American people and to the world, but the fear of its effect on their political aspirations.

The trouble with the Senators when they consider the League is, that they see Wilson and Taft written in letters so large that they cannot see anything else. To put it briefly, they think they are playing into the hands of Wilson and Taft and committing political suicide so far as their Presidential aspirations for 1920 are concerned. On the other hand they seem to think if they can succeed in discrediting the League, they might win, and in any event cannot more than fail and would not be any worse off politically than if they took the other course. They probably consider this good politics for the present, but we think in the end they will find that they have made a grave mistake. When the majority of our great dailies and magazines, and nearly all of our great educators, the mass of our business men, The American Federation of Labor, most of our farmers and all of thec hurches, are endorsing and heartily supporting the League, the people will not accept the mere unsupported declarations of a handful of men against it, even though they are Senators.

—XOX—

REPUBLICAN EFFRONTERY

In a recent speech in Philadelphia, Representative Gillett of Massachusetts, whom the Republicans have chosen for Speaker, called President Wilson a dreamer and an idealist. More than that, Mr. Gillett said the President "is an egoist; he is not a man of practical affairs." And the Republican leader added: "The people do not want a repetition of the indecision, apparent aimlessness and blundering of the past few years in Washington."

The record of the Democratic party during the last several years of control will bear comparison with that set up by the Republicans who held the reins of government unbrokenly from 1896 to 1912.

Mr. Gillett's party conducted the war with Spain. As wars go, it wasn't much of a war; about one per cent as large an undertaking as our part in the world war, which was conducted with about one hundred times as much efficiency. It wasn't fought long enough ago for the public to have forgotten the embalmed-beef scandal, the kind of food the soldiers ate; the plagues that swept them away in the camps until the death rate appalled the country because of poor sanitation, or no sanitation at all, and a hopelessly incompetent medical service. Nor has the country forgotten that favoritism ruled over efficiency in the commissioning of officers; that the expeditionary force to Cuba was commanded by a general too fat to walk and who had to be carried about on a litter, and who owed his preferment to his personal friendship for the Secretary of War. Compare the record of Shafter, in Cuba with a handful of men, with that of Pershing in France with two million, and then think of the impudence of Republicans in mentioning such a thing as "indecision," aimlessness," or "blundering."

During successive administrations from 1896 to 1912, Republicans talked of banking reform; the Democrats established the Federal Reserve System; Republicans talked of farm loans; the Democrats established the Farm Loan Bank system under which farmers have borrowed nearly $200,000,000 at a low rate of interest and on very long terms. The Democratic administration substituted deeds for words.

America's achievements in the past two years astounded her allies and overwhelmed her enemies; they are the brightst page in history —and they were accomplished under the leadership of a man Mr. Gillett has the effrontery to call a "dreamer" and an "idealist."

The Potter Progress Club held its regular meeting in Grange Hall June 28, 1919, the memorable day on which the treaty of peace was signed by the German plenipotentiaries at Versailles. The officers present were Mrs. G. H. Busch, president; Mrs. L. B. Williams, vice-president; and Mrs. Hugh Blake, secretary. Some of the other members who were present and participated in the proceedings of the meeting were: Mrs. James Eddie, Mrs. W. T. Eddie, Mrs. Chas. Whittaker, Mrs. A. F. Whittaker, Mrs. J. E. Thornton, Mrs. V. S. Thornton. Mrs. A. R. Sides, Mrs. P. E. Neil, Mrs. E. A. Spotswood, Mrs. H. R. Pickle, Mrs. H. A. Dickey, Mrs Russel Spencer, and Mrs. O. B. Filben. After the business session an interesting program, arranged by the program committee of which Mrs. A. R. Sides is chairman, was rendered as follows: Reading of Edwin Markham's poem, "Homing Heroes," by Mrs. G. H. Busch; reading, "Service Stars" by Mrs. P. E. Neil; recitation, "Old Glory", by Mrs. V. S. Thornton; humorous reading "Columbus Discovers America," by Mrs. A. R. Sides; and community singing of a number of best loved old songs, with Mrs. A. R. Sides as accompanist. The club voted to take a mid-summer vacation from its labors, so the next meeting will be held on the fourth Saturday in September.

TO INSTALL IRRIGATION SYSTEM

This week S. H. Busch contracted with Richard Carter for the construction of a dam on his property to impound the waters of Boyes Creek for irrigation purposes. The dam will be located about a quarter of a mile west of the old orchards on the Busch ranch and at a point in the creek which for many years has been known as the "Dam Site." Here the bed rock projects from each side of the canyon, forming a natural foundation for the proposed structure. The dam will be built of reinforced concrete, and will be fifty feet long, thirty feet high, and five feet wide at the base. A spill way and fish ladder will be built of rock and cement. The reservoir will be about 100 yards wide and a quarter of a mile long. The water will be conveyed in a ditch to the fields on either side of the county road where it will be utilized to irrigate about 40 acres of alfalfa. The progress of this project will be watched with interest by the other land owners of this valley who are planning to bring their lands under some system of irrigation.
